“Clothed in Reverence” – A Reflection on Dress at Mass

As we gather each Sunday to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we are reminded that we are entering into the presence of the King of Kings. The church is not just a building—it is a sacred space where heaven touches earth, and where we, as the Body of Christ, come to worship in spirit and truth.

In this spirit, I'd like to gently encourage all of us to reflect on how we prepare ourselves—body, mind, and soul—for this sacred encounter. Just as we would dress with care and respect for a special occasion or to meet someone important, so too should we consider how we present ourselves before the Lord.

Modesty in dress is not about judgment or shame. It is about honoring the dignity of our bodies and the sacredness of the liturgy. It is an outward expression of an inward reverence. At the same time, we remember that the Church is a home for all—those who are seasoned in the faith and those just beginning their journey. Let us be patient, kind, and welcoming, trusting that the Holy Spirit is at work in every heart.

May our example of reverence, charity, and joy be a light to others. And may our parish always be a place where truth and love walk hand in hand.

Mass for the Precious Ones Honors Infants and Unborn Children

Join Bishop Erik Pohlmeier as he celebrates a Mass for the Precious Ones on Sunday, Nov. 16, at 3 p.m. at the National Shrine of Our Lady of La Leche, 101 San Marco Avenue in St. Augustine. This special Mass honors the memory of our "precious ones" who have gone before us. This Mass offers comfort and hope to families who grieve following a loss through miscarriage, a child loss in adulthood or following a healing program after an abortion. All are welcome to attend. For more information, contact the Office of Human Life and Dignity at (904) 562-6914 or HLD@dosaf1.com.

November 6Parishioners in Action

Two dynamic presentations: Breaking the Cycle of Human Trafficking and How to Protect Yourself from Fraud and Scams. The presentations from 10 a.m. to noon, at St. John Paul Catholic Church, 127 Stone Mason Way, Ponte Vedra. Hosted by Knights of Columbus and Respect Life Ministry, the event is open to all.

The word "Halloween" is a contraction of the expression "all hallows' eve" or "all saints eve." It's roots are deeply Catholic. The Celtic culture had a celebration called Samhain, which literally means the "end of summer." This was the beginning of their new year. During the festival celebrations, Celts believed the souls of the dead returned to mingle with the living. In order to scare away the evil spirits, people would wear masks and light bonfires. When the Romans conquered the Celts, they added their own touches to the celebration of Samhain. This included homage to Pomona, the Roman goddess of orchards with activities such as bobbing for apples and drinking cider among other things.

Enter Christianity in 835 with Pope Gregory IV moving the celebration of the martyrs (later All Saints Day) from May 13 to November 1. The night before became known as "all hallows' eve" (Halloween). Many of the customs we associate with Halloween are derived from these ancient celebrations.

While in our secular world, Halloween has quite a commercial look to it, as Catholics we are called to recall it as part of our faith tradition.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let the perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

All Souls – November 2, 2025

On the Feast of All Souls we pray for those who have gone before us and stand in judgment before God. May we share with one another the treasure of love's memory, and console one another with the assurance of resurrection.

*I arise today, through
 God's Strength to pilot me,
 God's Might to uphold me,
 God's Wisdom to guide me,
 God's eye to look before me,
 God's ear to hear me,
 God's word to speak for me,
 God's hand to guard me,
 God's shield to protect me,
 God's host to save me.*
