New Vatican stamp honors U.S. Saint Kateri Tekakwitha

The stamp depicts Kateri surrounded by natural imagery that evokes her Mohawk heritage and her profound sense of harmony with creation, as well as the word speranza, "hope."

Canonized in 2012 by Pope Benedict XVI, Kateri (1656–1680) was the daughter of a Mohawk father and an Algonquin Christian mother. After her conversion, she lived a life of prayer, chastity, and service to the sick, dying at only 24. For Indigenous and North American Catholics alike, her presence on a Vatican stamp represents a powerful acknowledgment of faith's diversity within the Church.

Support Relief Efforts for Those Affected by Hurricane Melissa The Diocese of St. Augustine will not be taking up a collection in parishes at this time. Instead, the diocese encourages the faithful to donate directly to Catholic Relief Services (CRS) to help families in Haiti and Jamaica recover from Hurricane Melissa. This rare Category 5 hurricane—the strongest ever to strike Jamaica—brought catastrophic winds, flooding and landslides, leaving thousands without shelter, clean water or essential supplies. CRS teams are on the ground providing lifesaving aid, including emergency shelter, food, clean water and hygiene kits. Your gift today can make a difference www.crs.org/donate/hurricane-melissa?ms=agicrs2026hcm00her01

#iGiveCatholic This year's #iGiveCatholic campaign begins with advanced giving starting on Monday, Nov. 17 and the nationwide charitable initiative known as GivingTuesday will take place on Tuesday, Dec. 2.

Muffins4Life Muffins4Life brings together life-affirming organizations and individuals in the pro-life ministry to open communication channels among participants over a great muffin! This month's event will be on Wednesday, Nov. 19 at St. Gerard Campus located at 1405 U.S. 1 in St. Augustine and our guest speaker is Nancy Basham, executive director of Women's Help Center in Jacksonville. It will be from 10 to 11:30 a.m. and registration is mandatory as space is limited. Use the QR Code on the flyer below to register. For more information, email hld@dosafll.com.

Youth Pilgrimage to Poland June 9-18, 2026.

The cost of the Pilgrimage is only $2700 which includes everything except daily lunches. The actual cost of the pilgrimage is actually higher, but we are getting grants to cover it. This is really a beautiful pilgrimage. I hope our students can take advantage of the low cost because I know they will benefit spiritually and have fun at the same time.

They will visit the home where Pope John Paul II was born, the Convent of St. Faustina, an archaeological underground museum, a monastery city founded by St. Maximillian Kolbe, a science center where the students can conduct experiments, an underground salt mine, a day at a theme park, and much more.

Q. Why did JESUS CHRIST found the Catholic Church?

A. JESUS CHRIST founded the Catholic Church for the glory of GOD and to save the souls of all men by teaching, governing and sanctifying them.

COME AND MAKE A VISIT TO THE BLESSED SACRAMENT FOR YOUR QUIET PRAYER TIME. TUESDAYS 6-7PM. CONFESSIONS AVAILABLE.
