Twelfth Sunday In Ordinary Time ~ June 21, 2026

St. Thérèse's Marian Devotion

As Little Flower devotees well know, it was at its height of Thérèse's healing from a mysterious illness at age 10 that she developed a deep devotion to Mary. She would later write: "All of a sudden the Blessed Virgin appeared beautiful to me, so beautiful that never had I seen anything so attractive; her face was suffused with an ineffable benevolence and tenderness, but what penetrated to the very depths of my soul was the 'ravishing smile of the Blessed Virgin.' At that instant, all my pain disappeared, and two large tears glistened on my eyelashes, and flowed down my cheeks silently, but they were tears of unmixed joy."

That healing was a beautiful moment, but Mary was always a mother to her, especially after her own mother Zélie's death at age 45 when her youngest surviving daughter was just 4 years old.

In her own words: "Father encouraged me to be devout to the Blessed Virgin and I promised myself to redouble my tenderness for her." That included "my little May altar."

The Mission of the Catholic Church The Catholic Church exists to continue the mission of Jesus Christ. She proclaims the Gospel, celebrates the sacraments, teaches the faith, serves the poor, and builds a community of disciples who live in communion with God and one another. Through worship, charity, and evangelization, the Church brings Christ's light to the world and invites every person into the joy of salvation.

July 24-26 The seminarians from the Diocese of St. Augustine are hosting their annual retreat for young men in our diocese, ages 16+, who are discerning a vocation to the priesthood.

This overnight retreat will be held at Marywood Retreat Center, 235 Marywood Drive, St. Johns and includes Mass, talks, small groups, Adoration, a Eucharistic procession, meals, recreation and fellowship.

The cost is $15 to attend. For questions, email vocations@dos afl.com or call (904) 262-3200, ext.101.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time (June 20/21, 2026) A theme of courage in the Lord links today's Scripture passages. The prophet Jeremiah senses people ready to denounce him on every side. He does not fear, but takes courage: ... The Lord is with me, like a mighty champion ... In St. Mathew's Gospel, Jesus assures the Apostles that nothing happens without God's knowledge. So do not be afraid, He proclaims. Faithful disciples put their faith and trust in the Lord. They are not afraid to defend Church teachings on marriage, abortion, and other moral directives that challenge secular society's immoral views. Jesus' truth is revealed in the Sacred Word. Read the Scriptures daily and refer to the Catechism of the Catholic Church to learn more about Church teachings.

The Blessed Sacrament is Exposed for your quiet prayer time every Tuesday from 6-7pm.
Confessions available. Come and make a visit to the Blessed Sacrament!

"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever does not acknowledge me before others I will not acknowledge before my heavenly Father." Matthew 10: 32-33.

Acknowledgment of God is recognition of what God has done for us. To fail to recognize that all we have and are is His gift is not to recognize Him.
