Our Mission Statement
The mission of St. Patrick Catholic School is to lay the foundation for success in students through Catholic traditions, rooted in the Eucharist and Gospel teachings of Christ, with high standards of education in a safe, nurturing, and welcoming environment.

I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them [as their God]. Rev 21:3

Muffins with Mom—Thank You

A very special thank you to the HSA Board as well as Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Bird, Mrs. Van Blaricum, Mrs. Zhou, and all the Moms who helped make the morning such a wonderful event.

Congratulations to Kevin and Thomas Li for making their Sacraments of Initiation at the Mass on Friday, May 13. We're so proud of them!

Step Up for Students

Step Up is now accepting applications from new families for the 2022-23 school year for the following programs:

- Florida Tax Credit Scholarship (FTC)
- Family Empowerment Scholarship for Educational Options (FES-EO)
- Family Empowerment Scholarship for Unique Abilities (FES-UA)

All new families are encouraged to APPLY NOW. Renewal families for these programs, including transitioning McKay students, may still secure their student's 2022-23 scholarship. Please make sure you have completed your "Intent to Continue" process.

- Helpful information regarding applications for new students can be found here.
- Helpful information regarding the "Intent to Continue" for 2021-22 FTC, FES-EO, FES-UA and McKay students can be found here.

Reminder: Siblings of awarded FES-UA students are eligible for a scholarship through the FES-EO program. This information will be shared with FES-UA families; however, you may click here to learn more. Also, don't forget that Law Enforcement Officers and Military personnel are approved for scholarships, REGARDLESS of income!

Bundt Cake Sale Class Winner

A HUGE thank you to everyone who supported our Bundt cake sale. Over 240 cakes were purchased! Congratulations to the 4th grade for having the highest number of sales. The class will be receiving a Bundtini party.
